

Who's Your Daddy Longlegs?

By Angela Pennell

I'm Arachnophobic! Spiders give me the heebie-jeebies.

They're relentlessly hanging around, set to ambush.

Ugly face! Fangs!

They've got webs worldwide. They do! Worldwide webs! Ready to catch you and suck your brain. They want to slurp your insides out. They want to trap you, zap you, wrap you and sap you.

Whether it's a Red-back, Black Widow, Funnel Web, Daddy Longlegs or Tarantula the loathing is the same. Scary, hairy, horror heads make my skin crawl. Even pictures of them give me the creeps.

Be gone itty bitty bitey ones! Stay in your corner and I'll stay in mine!
